Greetings Outlanders,

We wish to send out words of gratitude to all good gentles who have made the past months of Our reign successful and thoroughly enjoyable. We have benefited from generous deeds too numerous to count. We have been deeply moved by the hospitality shown Us as We journeyed throughout the Outlands to many wonderful events. When duty required travels outside this fair Kingdom, Outlanders rallied to Our side with loyalty, strength, and skill. We wish to thank the Landed Nobles, Peers and Officers who gave freely of thoughtful council and assistance when asked.

Members of Our retinue have been the support system whose wise council, able hands, constant humor, and companionship have made this reign such a meaningful experience. Our deep appreciation goes to those who spent their energy on set up and take down, transport, loading and unloading at every event, fighter practice, Estrella and Gulf Wars. We had a staff of steadfast Royal Guards and compassionate Ladies in Waiting who did a remarkable job of anticipating Our needs and resolving unexpected challenges. The help of Our dear friends who organized a complex schedule of events and responsibilities was absolutely invaluable. We are grateful both for the service of Our staff and the opportunity to establish relationships that We hope will long endure.

We were clothed in exquisite garb for many climates and occasions by artisans who donated their valuable time, materials, and creative gifts to help deliver a more romantic and regal presence. We were gifted fine costumes of stunning beauty, often requiring the labor of hand and eye for many late nights. The generosity and talent of these artisans has been overwhelming.

There is no greater pride than fighting amongst the valiant warriors of the Outlands. Several individuals have helped support Our martial passion with gifts of armor, weapons, and battle attire. Outlanders heard the call for pageantry and a sea of green and gold on the fields of Estrella War and responded with enthusiasm far exceeding Our expectations. We felt so proud to march with Our army beneath flowing banners and hope to see Outlands courage and honor celebrated throughout the Known World for generations to come.

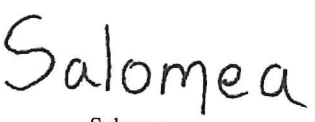
It was Our pleasure and good fortune to enjoy the hospitality of treasured friends who provided Us with food and lodging when away from home. Our family and entourage were welcomed into homes north and south with no mention of the inconvenience to Our hosts. Not only did this make travel more economical, but We were also able to make and strengthen relationships with some remarkable people.

Unto the good populace of al-Barran: After a great deal of dedicated service to Our barony of al-Barran, Sir Gregor and Lady Monika have expressed to Us their intention to step down as Baron and Baroness of al-Barran. We appreciate their hard work and sacrifice as custodians of Our lands. The polling for the coronet of al-Barran will be held at Grand Outlandish on Sunday, May 24, 2009 between the hours of 12-4 pm.

The efforts of the populace ever increase Our love and pride.

We remain in service to the Kingdom of the Outlands,

Alrik II
King



Salomea
Queen

Unto to the Populace of the Outlands, Greetings!

As the spring air breathes new life into our lands, Our hearts are filled with excitement for the coming summer. In Our recent travels to distant lands, We shared joyous moments and times with old friends and new, and We thank our fellow Outlanders for their time and efforts to make Gulf Wars a special event. Although Our time there was short, memories will live long.

The welcome We received upon Our return warmed Our hearts, and We were deeply touched to witness Baroness Mary of Blackthorn receive the accolade of Pelican for her years of steadfast service to this Kingdom.

As We look forward, We would like to invite everyone to Our Coronation being held in the Barony of Caer Galen, where We will ascend the Stag Thrones of the Mighty Outlands, and give Our thanks to Alrik II and Salomea for their time and efforts as King and Queen of these lands.

Our journeys will take Us to the Barony of al-Barran where we will hear the words of the populace in Our search for a new Baron and Baroness.

Kingdom Seneschal

Happy Birthday SCA!

May starts the busy travel season with Coronation being held in the Barony of Caer Galen on May 9-10. As always this promises to be a day filled with pageantry, don't miss a minute. Caer Galen is known for fun and creative events and the autocrat has a lot of wonderful things planned. Memorial Day Weekend offers a difficult choice with Grand Outlandish and Crossroads being held at opposite ends of the Kingdom, no matter which you choose both will be fantastic. Now is the time to review your camping gear and be prepared for the months of fun ahead.

The polling for the coronet of al-Barran will be held at Grand Outlandish on Sunday, May 24, 2009 from 12:00 to 4:00 pm.

I have said it before and I will say it again. Volunteer! Your Kingdom has need of you, not only during war season but year round. Both local and Kingdom officers are always looking for deputies, autocrats always need help before, during and after events. Ask around and you will find something to do and you might make a few new friends too.

Ceah

Arts & Sciences Minister

Greetings,
I want to give a quick thank you to Their Excellencies of al-Barran for hosting this event, Lady Kimberly Graham for autocrating and THL Emery de Futton as Queen's Prize Coordinator. Since this letter has to be submitted before the event happens a follow up letter will be forthcoming in the May OH
The Northern Regional A&S Deputy still remains open for I have not received any letters of intent. Please email me if you are interested. The Handbook has been updated and can be found on the Kingdom A&S website. Please review if you have not taken the time to do so. Starting from June-November, each region will be hosting a Regional A&S Collegium. So, the A&S deputies will need to make sure it happens in each region. We are looking for autocrats and sites for these events. Please submit your bids into your Regional A&S deputy and the Kingdom A&S Minister (Northern region-submit to Kingdom A&S). This is an exciting event to hold classes, discussions, learn from others and share ideas. This will provide opportunity to not only go to one A&S Collegium, but two, there are no restrictions if you want to teach or take classes at either Collegium or just one.

YIS,
Mistress Tana a l'Esprit Fort

Earl Marshal

Greetings!
The first marshal meeting will be at Grand Outlandish on Saturday (~4PM) in one of the A&S tents. All marshals are encouraged to attend and I will be re-registering authorizing marshals at that time. An agenda of various topics will be handed out and a discussion will follow.

The second marshal meeting, scheduled for Glory, may have to change. I am in the process of changing jobs. Please bear with me.

Sir Dennis the Wright

Rapier Marshall

Unto all Rapier Fighters!
Events that sponsor rapier tourneys have a huge list of volunteers: coordinators, marshalls, list-mistresses, heralds, and, sometimes, waterbearers. Please take time during such an event to thank those folks who give of their time so that you can have fun.
With the summer tourney season upon us, ready your blades and your armor for the friendly battles. And when you tire of fighting, help the marshalls, list-mistresses, heralds, and waterbearers so that others can have fun too!

YIS,
Ulrich

Archer General

The Royal Archer tournament is coming up quickly. This year, Their Majesties have asked that the Royal Archer become a working member of retinue rather than merely a position of honor. They ask that all entrants be prepared to do their part to help with the many tasks that are needed to make a reign run smoothly from traveling to events which the Crown will attend to assisting with set up to helping to guard Their Majesties and provide escort not merely in court but at any time possible. While it sounds like a lot of work, the more hands to help with these duties the lighter the load for everyone. Beginning with this Royal Archer, this visible symbol of our community will take his/her place alongside the other champions, not just as a symbol but as a working part of the retinue ensuring Their Majesties have all that they need to serve our fine kingdom.

With the camping season approaching, the opportunities for thrown weapons activities abound. All interested gentles are encouraged to participate and help thrown weapons flourish. It should be noted that the rules are being revised and will only be best with input from active participants. As such, with the anticipated growth of weapon hurlers it is imperative that all thrown weapons authorizing marshals contact Lord Jethro Stille at jethrostille@yahoo.com. This will help bring thrown weapons in line with other kingdom activities.

THC Forrester

Chronicler

Greetings to the Outlands.

This will begin my monthly pleading for cover art, as well as interior art. Bring your event into the spotlight by having one of our wonderful artists come up with art that goes along with your event. This is the first thing people see when they receive their Outlandish Herald, so make sure its your event that comes out to the for front. However, this being said it does not have to be just for an event. If you are an artist and would like to see your work on the Outlandish Herald, by all means send it to me, and there is a very good chance you will see it on the cover.

My second plea will be for articles. Do you have something that people are always asking how you do that? Is there a recipe that makes our Royalty ask for it again and again? Is there something that you have researched, and you feel others would share your enthusiasm? Have it published for all to read! I am looking for articles from all parts of the Outlands to share. Often things that are common knowledge in one area, are virtually unheard of in the other. Please lets expand the knowledge of the Outlands.

Lastly, If your submitting an article to the Outlandish Herald, please use chronicler@outlands.org. This allows both myself, and my deputies get the article. For all other missives, you can use either my person address, or chronicler@outlands.org.

Minister of Children

Greetings to the great populace of the Outlands,
There are several Society and Kingdom Policies for youth in the SCA. This letter is a brief overview of the current Society Policies. In next month's letter, I'll give you an overview of the Outlands Policies. If you want more details, please contact me at krege@aps.edu and I'll send you copies of the expanded overview and the following memorandums. Baroness Ardenia Aruadh is the Society Children's Officer Coordinator and she can be reached at (802) 635-7659, children@sca.org. There is no Society Youth Ministry Handbook.

There are four Society Handbooks and two Memorandums (updating youth policies) from the Society Seneschal.

1) Organizational Handbook, April 2001, Revised December 2006. In Corpora, Section IX.A.7-9 addresses Society Combat by minors (on page 25 of Corpora and on page 36 of the Handbook). http://www.sca.org/docs/pdf/govdocs.pdf

2) Seneschal's Handbook, October 2005 edition. Sections VIII and XII and Appendix A of the Society Seneschal's Handbook address Children's Activities, Parental Responsibilities for Children at SCA Events, Ministry of Children, Waivers and Parental Consent Forms, SCA Children's Officers and SCA-Sponsored Children's Activities. http://www.sca.org/officers/seneschal/

3) The May 19, 2007 Memorandum from Master Aaron Swiftrunner, Society Seneschal (George Reed, VP of Operations) expanded The Society Seneschal Policy for Youth Activities and replaced Section VIII of the Society Seneschal's Handbook. This expanded policy was effective May 19, 2007 and expanded the previous "Two Deep Rule", which requires a minimum of two unrelated adults to be present at "all organized SCA activities for minors." This expanded policy applies, regardless of whether or not the local group has a Minister of Children Officer. There is also a new section, which addresses "Neglect of Parental (or Guardian) Responsibility for Minors." This new policy also gives required penalties for violations under both of these new expanded policies in Section VIII.

4) The April, 2007 Memorandum from Master Aaron Swiftrunner, Society Seneschal, announced a new policy that many individuals who serve in a leadership or supervisory position of youth in the SCA would be required to have background checks by an outside agency. A second memorandum addressed frequently asked Questions and Answers about the new policy. This new policy was implemented in February 2008 and requires background checks in the Outlands, only of Minister of Children Officers.

5) Marshal's Handbook, Rev. March 21, 2007. Minor Authorization is addressed in Section I.B.1-5, Combat Authorization Requirements—Minor Authorizations (p. 5-6). http://www.sca.org/officers/marshal/docs/

6) Society for Creative Anachronism Equestrian Handbook, 2nd Edition, March 2003 Part I – SCA Equestrian Participant Regulations B. Regulations for Minors http://www.sca.org/officers/equestrian/docs.html

Come one, Come all to Pageantry in the Park! This celebration picnic of Mid-Summer will be a day of fun, and food, showcasing authenticity, heraldry, and pageantry.

Pageantry in the Park will take all the best attributes of the romantic "High Middle Ages"; heraldic display, period clothing and accouterments, and chivalric comportment, and combine them with the fun of a simple "picnic in the park". Please bring your sunshades, banners, pennons, and standards! With the emphasis on keeping as much of a medieval atmosphere as possible, all efforts will be made to "hide the mundane". Please keep soda cans, Tupperware, KFC boxes and all other mundanities hidden!

We will be holding many contests, including the Most Decadent feast, Best Heraldic Display, and a "Guilding the Lily" Contest (a display of spectacular voice heraldry ... more about this later.) There will be no fighting at this event; all fighters are encouraged to bring their Helmets and participate in the "Shiniest/Best Decorated Helmet" contest and we will have other 'competitions' as well. AND, in good Caerthan tradition, we will be playing lawn games including BOCCE BALL! There will be no specific children's events; children are encouraged to participate in all activities WITH their parents.

In the tradition of benevolence and service, we will be gathering nonperishable food items for the local food bank. The need for donations is just as great now as ever—please do what those in the SCA do best, and give abundantly. Remember that charity is one of the Knightly Virtues.

The stone pavilion picnic area is reserved from 10:00 A.M. until 2:00 P.M. for those who choose to make use of it. Stone privies are also located on site.

It routinely draws 20,000 visitors each year. We ask all gentles to wear their finest tourney garb, bring their pavilions, music, and arts displays, and show off the best of what our Society has to offer. There will be dancing for all interested, and an Arts and Sciences pavilion where artisans are encouraged to display and demonstrate their abilities.

Please contact the Autocrat for revel information.

The Battle of Agincourt and One Hundred Years of Glory
Hosted by the Barony of Unser Hafen (Fort Collins, CO)
1-5 July, 2009
Site opens 1pm on 1 July. Site closes noon on 5 July.
LCCC-BLM Property, Buford WY
same site as previous years

Check the web site at www.glorywar.org for up to date information and schedules.

Come join the Barony of Unser Hafen for its twelfth annual Glory War. This year we meet on the fields of Agincourt. The Hundred Years War, lasting from 1337 until 1453, was a defining time for the history of both England and France. The war started in May 1337 when King Philip VI of France attempted to confiscate the English territories in the duchy of Aquitaine. It ended in July 1453 when the French finally expelled the English from the continent (except for Calais). The Hundred Years War was a series of chevauchees (plundering raids), sieges and naval battles interspersed with truces and uneasy peace.

Tournaments for Heavy Weapons, Rapier, Archery and Thrown Weapons are being scheduled. Arts and Sciences classes and Youth Programs will be available for all who wish to participate. Shopping and daytime activities will tempt you. The evenings will play host to various parties and social gatherings. Bardic competitions will keep all entertained. Truly something for everyone!

Free Breakfast comes with your site fee. This year the White Rose Inn will be offering an optional evening Feast Plan. The plan is limited to 80 persons. Check the Glory web site for more information and menu.

Pre-Registration and registration through ACCEPS will be available for discounted rates. Again, check the web site for all information.

Merchants highly encouraged to contact the Merchants Coordinator soon. Prime spaces given to first reserved. Check the web site for further details.

Greetings, all good gentles and be of good cheer for the great Lonely Mountain Defender draws nigh! Enjoy days of frivolity, fighting and fun in the lovely high mountain meadow.

Lonely Mountain is at an elevation of approximately 9,500 feet, in the midst of the Jemez Mountains and the Santa Fe National Forest, between Los Alamos, NM, and Cuba, NM. Be prepared for hot afternoons, occasional rains, and cold nights. There is no water on site, so be sure to bring plenty. The US Forest Service will set fire restrictions, if any, at the time of the event. As in years past, please stay updated on the Forest closures and event news on our website (www.drygestan.outlands.org). Our camping is restricted to the meadow-side of the road (as in years past). There will be no merchanting. As in years past, the back-road is permanently closed. There is RV/trailer parking available, but no hook-ups, in a meadow not far from the site (about 100 yards away). Please let the Autocrat know if you are bringing an RV or travel-trailer so that we may accommodate.

Go through a gauntlet of various competitions, to become the next Defender of Dragons! Armored combatants and rapier combatants: you will have the opportunity to fight until you can't fight anymore! Stay hale and healthy so that the chirurgeonate is bored!

Directions from al-Barran and Points South: Take your best route to the northern-most Bernalillo exit (NM 550 to Cuba and Farmington) off of the King's Highway (I-25). Take NM 550 to San Ysidro. Turn right (east) onto NM 4 (heading to Jemez Springs). Travel on NM 4 about 30-35 miles (through Jemez Pueblo and Jemez Springs) until you see the turn-off for Forest Road 289 (also known as St. Peter's Dome Road) (a right marked with an SCA sign). Follow Forest Road 289 until you see the site (about 2 miles). The site is on your right, in a large meadow with a medium-sized gravel parking lot in front.

The directions website, www.mapquest.com, does provide directions to the intersection of Forest Road 289 and NM 4: type in the destination of "St. Peter's Dome Road and Highway 4, Jemez, NM 87025" into the starting or ending destination box. From that intersection, you will travel down the dirt-road that is St. Peter's Dome Road about 2 miles. The site is on your right, in a large meadow with a medium-sized gravel parking lot in front.

FROM THE SABLE CHAMBER

The Advent of Polyalphabetic Ciphers
By: Jethro Stille

The middle ages are often thought to be lacking in sophisticated encryption methods. That, however, is not wholly true. While they may not have been widely used within period, polyalphabetic ciphers were invented within period. In fact, Leon Battista Alberti developed a clever method in the middle 15th century!

Polyalphabetic ciphers are encryption methods wherein the same encrypted letter can represent many different plain text letters. This is different from the previously discussed monoalphabetic ciphers. For example, in last month's puzzle the number '8' always represented the letter 'A'. This was a monoalphabetic cipher. In a polyalphabetic cipher the number '8' could represent the letter 'A' in one part of the message and the letter 'B' in another part.

Alberti's method involved the use of a cipher disk that he invented. The disk consisted of two different sized circular pieces of metal that were evenly divided into 24 sections (more or fewer sections could be used). On the larger piece he inscribed the letters of the alphabet in their usual order. On the smaller piece (the one that rotated), he inscribed the letters in a random order.

To encrypt, a letter from the inner disk (the randomly ordered one) would be used as a secret key letter. It would be set to be aligned with a pre-determined letter of the larger disk. After writing a few words, the cryptographer would then turn the disk such that the key letter would align with another letter of the regularly ordered alphabet. He would then write that letter as a capital letter to signify that this particular letter should be aligned with the key letter before proceeding to encrypt another portion of the message in lowercase letters as determined by the wheel.

Granted this is a quick explanation that does not properly show Alberti's genius. It will, though, form the basis of this month's puzzle which will consist of 26 letters. I will provide the random order of the letters (though not the key letter) to assist those of you who understandably find difficulty in deciphering the message without it. The method for deciphering the message without this hint will take some time to discuss and would go along well with the other part of Alberti's disk that make it so great - the use of codewords and phrases.

Ah but that, fellow Outlanders, is encryption for another day.

LAST COLUMN'S ANSWER (Paragraphs 1 and 2):
Victory at the Estrella War can be brought to the Outlands at the Estrella War by successfully conquering our enemies at the following fields of battle: the Village of Atenburgh, The Ruins of Baron Kragon's Keep, The Crescent River, and Castillo Herradura (Castle of the Golden Horseshoe).

The Village of Atenburgh is a square village with five buildings surrounded by a large wall with two gates at opposite corners. In one corner of the wall there is a tall building with two breachable openings.

[Space limits the whole answer - please contact me for the rest. Also the symbols were based upon Queen Mary's Cipher].

This Month's Hint: The random order for the inner disc is:
F I M O X Z Y R L N Q W K E U B S J C H D A V P T G

A call to arms!

Roland is under siege in the mountain pass and we must come to his aid! He was sent to deliver tribute to the Saracen King in northern Spain and was attacked. He has waged a noble battle in the mountain pass and is awaiting our help. We are called by his magic horn to help defend the pass and beat back the Infidels!

Come join us for Grand Outlandish Tournament XXXVI, "The Song of Roland" May 20-25, 2009 at Torrance County Park. Their Excellencies, Baron Gregor and Baroness Monika invite you to join us in the quest to help Roland. It will be five glorious days of fencing, fighting, bardics, archery, shopping and classes. We will also be hosting a seige cooking contest, a Roland look-a-like contest, a Roland-a-thon contest and of course, the Lord of Outlandish tournament.

Check on our website for updates and registration information.
